Decent relation to Harald Hårfagre 289

Preface

The research behind the genealogy presented in this book was started by my cousin Unni Asbjørg Bøyum Kluge. Different reasons made her stopped the research and he had the information lying around for some years. She handed it over to me and I started collecting information and found the link between the Josna clan and King Harald Hårfagre. I added all the available information from the history older than the Josna clan. I was also able to find some new information about the family in USA. I documented what we found on the internet and was contacted short time after by Dolores May Myers married to Scott Gary Maxwell that is a descendant from Knut Larson Boyum. They helped me with that part of the family. Then Katrina Boyum found the website and contacted me. Her father Robert Boyum is grandson of Ole Larson Boyum. They were a great help to update this side of the family. Then it was only one thing left, the descendants of Sjur Bøyum. After I visited his son Knut Bøyum he gave me all the information he knew and pointed me in the right direction. After meeting my mother's cousins Grace in Minnesota, Ruth in Minnesota and Knut here in Norway I was inspired to do something with the information. The result is this book.

Since then I have met several of my cousins in Minnesota both here in Norway and in the USA. It's also been several years since the first version of this book, and it has happened a lot in the family. I have therefore decided to update with the new information that has been available to me and publish a new version of the book.

Acknowledgements

I would like to extend my deepest thanks to Unni Asbjørg Bøyum Kluge for all the work she did and handing over the information to me. If it had not been for her, this information would not be available to us all. I will also thank Dolores May Myers and her husband for the help I got with that side of the family. And last, but not less, I will thank Katrina Boyum for all the help with documentation and contact with her father Robert Boyum and all the family in Minnesota. Thanks for all the help I got. I also thank the authors of “Balestrand I, Ættesoge” (the history book from the area where the Bøyum farm resides) that has been a source of some of the information in this book. At last but not least I will thank Knut Bøyum for the help with their part of the family.

For the new version of the book I wish to thank all the family in Minnesota for the help I received with updates on that side of the family. Again, Katrina Boyum has helped me with organizing information her aunt has given her after her research. There are also some updates on other parts of the family tree due to new information found after more research into the history. There are also some updates on the history of my grandfather, Ivar Bøyum. After visiting Sachsenhausen in Germany, I found out a little more of the prison history of his prison time in this camp.

HISTORY

The time before 1900

Our Bøyum family is (as almost everybody in Norway) related to the old viking kings. Our link goes through one of Harald Hårfagre (Harald Fairhair) daughter (Ålov Haraldsdtr.). This shortened story from the Heimskringla (The Chronicle of the Kings of Norway) gives us the link:

King Harald sent his men to a girl called Gyda, daughter of King Eirik of Hordaland, who was brought up as foster-child in the house of a great "farmer" in Valdres. The king wanted her for his concubine; for she was a remarkably handsome girl, but of high spirit withal. Now when the messengers came there, and delivered their errand to the girl, she answered, that she would not throw herself away even to take a king for her husband, who had no greater kingdom to rule over than a few districts. "And me thinks," said she, "it is wonderful that no king here in Norway will make the whole country subject to him, in the same way as Gorm the Old did in Denmark, or Eirik at Upsala." The messengers thought her answer was dreadfully haughty and asked what she thought would come of such an answer; for Harald was so mighty a man, that his invitation was good enough for her. But although she had replied to their errand differently from what they wished, they saw no chance, on this occasion, of taking her with them against her will; so, they prepared to return. When they were ready, and the people followed them out, Gyda said to the messengers, "Now tell King Harald these my words. I will only agree to be his lawful wife upon the condition that he shall first, for my sake, subject to himself the whole of Norway, so that he may rule over that kingdom as freely and fully as King Eirik over the Swedish dominions, or King Gorm over Denmark; for only then, methinks, can he be called the king of a people." Now came the messengers back to King Harald, bringing him the words of the girl, and saying she was so bold and foolish that she well deserved that the king should send a greater troop of people for her, and inflict on her some disgrace. Then answered the king, "This girl has not spoken or done so much amiss that she should be punished, but rather she should be thanked for her words. She has reminded me," said he, "of something which it appears to me wonderful I did not think of before. And now," added he, "I make the solemn vow, and take God to witness, who made me and rules over all things, that never shall I clip or comb my hair until I have subdued the whole of Norway, with scat, and duties, and domains; or if not, have died in the attempt." Guthorm thanked the king warmly for his vow; adding, that it was royal work to fulfil royal words.

The king started to gather Norway into one kingdom. There were a lot of battles against kings and local leaders, but after the BATTLE IN HAFERSFJORD he was the king of whole Norway.

When King Harald had now become sole king over all Norway, he remembered what that proud girl had said to him; so he sent men to her, and had her brought to him, and married her. And these were their children: Ålov -- she was the eldest; then was their son Hrorek; then Sigtryg, Frode, and Thorgils. King Harald had many wives and many children. That's the reason why so many people can claim that they are related to the king.

Ålov are our link to King Harald Hårfagre. I will try to describe the “line” from here down to us. She married Tore Rangvaldson Mørejarl and gave birth to a girl named Berglot. Berglot married Sigurd Håkonsson Ladejarl (890 - 962) and gave birth to a son. The son, Håkon Sigurdson Ladejarl (973 - 995) married Tora Skagesdtr. They had one daughter, Bergliot, which married Einar Tambarskjelve. They had two daughters, Åløv and Eindridi that married Sigrid Kjetilsdtr... Åløv married Tord Folesson and Åløv gave birth to Gudrund. Gudrund married Ågmund Torbergson and they got a son Skofte Ågmundson på Giske. The name of his wife is not known, but we know they got a son named Pål. Pål Skofteson married Sigrid Torkjellsgtr. and they had a daughter named Sigrid. Sigrid (Pålsdtr.) married Gudmund på Stadheim and had a son named Asgaut Gudmundson. Who Asgaut was married to is a little uncertain, but they had a son named Jon (Asgautson). Jon Asgautson married Sigrid Kolbjørnsdtr. and they had a son called Arne på Korsbrekke. Arne married a girl named Solveig Gamaldtr. på Velle. Their son Erland Arneson was married, but it has been impossible to find his wifes name. Erland had a son named Filippus Erlandson Josna (1290 – 1340). Filippus was married to Ingebjørg Erlendsdtr... Now we have reached the Losna clan. The picture on the left of this text shows the Losna Clan Coats of Arms. Filippus and Ingebjørg got a son the called Fartein. Fartein Filippusson Losna married Linea Fredriksdtr.. Their son was named Filipus. Filipus Farteinson Losna married Gyrid Sigurdsdtr. And gave birth to the son Fartegn. Fartegn Filipusson Losna (1415 – 1450) was married to Magnhild Jogrimsdtr.. They had a daughter called Gurid Fartegndtr. She married Anders Jensson and after what we know had a son Jens Anderson. Jens married a girl named Lucretia. We are not absolutely sure that this is her real name. They had two sons Samson Jensson (died in 1592) and Nils Jensson Simling that married Gudrund Gautesdtr. Dall. Their son Samson Nilsson Tjugum was married to Inger Cristoffersdtr. They had a daughter named Anna Samsonsdtr that married Kjell Kvamme. Their son Hans Kjellson Kvamme (born in 1618) was married but we don’t know his wifes name. Anyway, they had a daughter named Brita Hansdtr Kvamme that married Nils Frikson Langteig. Their son Hans Nilsson Kvamme (born 1699) married Ingrid Monsdtr Østerbø and they had a son named Ivar Hansson Kvamme. Ivar married a girl named Sigrid Mikkelsdtr Eitens and gave birth to Gjertrud Ivarsdtr.. Gjertrud married Johannes Sjurson Huke (1775 – 1848). Their son Sjur Johannesson Bøyum married Unni Ivarsdtr Supphellen. Sjur and Unni had 6 children. One of these children was Gjertrud Sjursdtr. Bøyum that married Lars Kjellson Hamrum. They had 6 children called Sjur, Knut, Unni, Ole, Ivar and Anna. This is the start of the “modern Boyum / Bøyum” family.

Norwegian surnames in the old days

There is more than one Bøyum family. It is some historic reasons for this. First of all is the way last names where given. Old Norwegian surnames was given based on their fathers given name and in many cases the farm where they lived. The surname based on their father's given name had an ending (dotter, datter, dtr [abbreviation] for a daughter and son for a son). The name of the farm could change if a person moved (by marriage or ....) to another farm. An example could be:

A man had one daughter and two sons. The fathers name was Nils Oleson Boyum (farm name Boyum). The daughter's given name was Anna, the oldest son's given name was Ole and the youngest son's given name was Nils. The daughters were not married, and the youngest son was married and moved to the farm Mundal. In this case the names are:

Anna Nilsdatter Boyum (the daughter), Ole Nilsson Boyum (the oldest son) and Nils Nilsson Mundal (the youngest son).

Ownership of farms in the old days

In the old days the farmer usually not owned the land on the farm. The land was owned by the king, the church or rich men (usually the nobility). The farmer had to pay tax to the owner for using the land. In this document I will differ between real owners and people that didn't own the land of the farm by using owner (or owned) and user (or used) when I describe the farmers.

BØYUM FARM (until approximately year 1900)

The name Bøyum was written Bøum in 1567, in 1667 Bøyum, in 1723 Bøyom and in 1898 Bøium. Today it is Bøyum in Norway, but the American part of the family is called Boyum.

The Bøyum area was the king's ground already around year 1600. It was already parted into 3 Bøyum farms (farm 1, 2 and 4). Before year 1800 the farms were dived into 7 farms. Our family came from farm 4 and another old farm called Hamrum.

Ingebrikt was the first known user of the part of the Bøyum farm we came from. This was in year 1603 and the tax was 1 "laup" 2 "pd" (about 18.5 kilogram) butter and a skin of a cow. In 1640 the user was Ola Ingebriktson. His wife's name was Brita Eivindsdtr.. Ola died early and his wife remarried with Hermund Kjellson. They used the farm until the year 1650. Hermund was born approximately 1620 and he lived in Grønsberg in Vik before moving to Bøyum. He was not accepted when he came to Bøyum, and since he was a man that never went away for a fight, he started a fight with a man named Stillaug Våtevik. They were drunk and Hermund said a lot of things he should not have said. They had to involve the authorities and it ended with conciliation. Hermund had to pay money and admit he was wrong. Hermund died in 1687.The farm was split between his two sons Kjell and Hermund. Kjell got most of the farm, and Hermund got a small part. The part was so small that he could not survive on it. Hermund had to give away his land to his half-brother Knut Olson (the son of Ola Ingebriktson), but Hermund's brother Kjell was the user of the farm. Kjell Hermandson was born in 1659. In the year 1701 he had three sons living on the farm. There was named Ingebrikt, Alf and Sylfest. Kjell was one of the farmers that in 1712 had to pay an extra tax because of the "Big Nordic War". Together with 3 neighbours he decided not to pay the tax. So, did most of the farmers in Sogn. We know that his son Ingebrekt married and moved to the farm Skagestad. His son Sylfest got the farm. Sylfest Kjellson was born approximately 1688 and was married in 1724 with Gjertrud Andersdtr. Mundal. Sylfest died in 1741, and his son Ole moved to the farm Indre-ese, his son Anders got the farm and the youngest son Kjell was never married and lived on the farm. Their mother remarried with Jon Sjorvatson Berge. He controlled the farm until he died in 1751 and Anders Sylfestson took over. He married Lussi Andersdtr... It was really Ola Sylfestson that paid out all debt and owned the farm, but when he moved to Indre-ese he sold the farm to his brother Anders. Anders died in 1771 and his belongings split between his widow and the daughter Gjertrud. In 1789 Gjertrud was married to Ivar Hanson Kvamme. She gave him half of the farm in wedding present. Her mother Lussi promised the other half of the farm if they got a child. Gjertrud got a child but died giving birth. They got a daughter, but she died soon after she was born. Ivar Hanson Kvamme then bought the other half of the farm and remarried with Sigrid Mikkjelsdtr. Eitorn. The got two daughters named Gjertrud and Ingrid. In 1786 Ivar died and his widow remarried Anders Torson Stølen. Anders, He kept the farm going until his daughters was old enough to take over. Gjertrud took over the farm and she married Johannes Sjurson Huke in 1806. Anders still lived on the farm until he died in 1825. Anders and Sigrid had 4 children. Ivar, Synneva that married Per Olson Horpedal, Randi that married Nils Jonson Mundal and Kari that married Markus Sjovatson Huke. Johannes Sjurson died in 1848 (73 years old). Johannes and Gjertrud had 5 children.

Sjur got the farm, Andres, Unni that married Sjur Olson Huke, Sigrid that married Ola Jonson Husebø and Brita that married Sjur Mikkjelson Mundal. Sjur Johannesson was born in 1814 and married Unni Ivarsdtr. Supphellen in 1838. They had 6 children, Johannes and Ivar d.e. that got the farm, Brita that was married to Hans Anderson Bøyum, Gjertrud that married Lars Kjellson Hamrum, Sigrid that married Ola Arnfinnson Kvalheim and Ivar d.y. that immigrated to USA. Sjur was in many ways a special man. He bought several small parts of land that he added to the farm. The farm was so big that when he died, he divided the farm in two. Johannes got the part that still named Bøyum farm 4, and Ivar d.e. got net new farm we today name Bøyum farm 5. Johannes Sjurson Bøyum was born in 1839 and married Åsa Torsdtr. Sværen in 1865. They immigrated to USA in 1875 and the farm was sold to Lars Kjellson Hamrum that was married to his sister Gjertrud. They later moved to Førde and sold the farm to Tor Åsmundson Mundal. He was married to Eli Torsdtr. Våtevik. They didn't have any children. Tor died and the widow remarried his brother Anders Amundson Mundal. They got 4 children, Tor and Sigvald who got the farm, Oddmund (schoolmaster in Balestrand) and Turid that married and moved to Kvåle in Sogndal.

HAMRUM FARM (until approximately year 1900)

The name Hamrum was written Hamrum in 1567, Hammer in 1611, Hammerum in 1663 and Hamrum since 1723. The name came from old Norwegian word hammer or berghammar (English: hammer).

In 1567 the farm was used by a man named Paul. In 1601 the farm was used by David, in 1603 Antonius and from 1611 Arne. Arne was married to Randi. Arne was the user of the farm until approximately 1654. After Arne the user of the farm was a man named Kristen. He had Hamrum from 1655 to 1665. Then the user was Ola, but he died soon after taking over the farm. After him the user was Ola Åmundson. He was probably married with the widow from the first Ola. When his wife died he remarried Eli Andersdtr.. Ola died in 1721 an Eli remarried Endre Ivarson Diestad. Solveig one of Ola (Hamrums) daughters was married to Anders Kristenson Grønneng. Endre used the farm until 1760 and died in 1775. Ola Anderson Grøneng used the farm from 1760. He was married the same year with Lussi Olsdtr. Berge. Ola died in 1774 and the Lussi remarried Johannes Åmundson Berge. Ola Anderson had two daughters, Eli that married Eirik Berge and Solveig that was married to Jon Torsson Mundal. Johannes Åmundson and Lussi had no children. They gave up the farm in year 1800 and gave the farm to Ola Jensson Hove from Fresvik. He was married to Steinor Endresdtr from Leikanger. Ola and Steinor had two daughters, Synneva that married Kjell Larsson Bøyum and Kari that married Mikkjel Sjurson Ø.Mundal. Ola Jensson died in 1823 and his wife Steinor in 1853. It was his soninlaw Kjell Larsson Bøyum that owned the farm after Ola Jensson died. Kjell was the first real owner of the farm. He was born in 1795 and married Synneva Olasdtr Hamrum in 1824. In 1837 the farm was visited by the king's ship. He had to pay 600 spesidaler (the Norwegian currency at that time). Kjell and Synneva had 9 children. Ola the eldest son got the farm, Lars married Gjertrud Sjursdtr. Bøyum (he moved Bøyum, from the to Førde and ended up in the farm Gutu in Vestfold), Kirsti that married Nils Jonson Lidal, Steinor that married Ola Jonson Hattlestad and Mari that married Endre Jonson Lidal. Ola Kjellson was born in 1847 and married Gjøron Ivarsdtr. Supphellen in 1867. They gave birth to 4 children, Kjell that got the farm, Synneva and Brita that never married and lived on the farm and Ivar that immigrated to USA.

Bøyum's that emigrated from Fjærland

It's a lot of people named Bøyum that emigrated to USA. Almost everybody was related to Fjærland in Sogn, but they were not necessarily from the same family. From the local history book, we know that the following persons emigrated.

Farm 1

Arne and Erland Erikson Bøyum (sons of Eirik Arneson Bøyum and Brita Ellensdtr Tufte) both emigrated to America. Arne Eirikson Bøyum (b. 1794) and his wife Brita Jonsdtr. emigrated in 1848. Ivar Andersson Bøyum (son of Anders Johannesson Bøyum and Gjørid Mikkjelsdtr Mundal) left Norway some years later. Brita Andersdtr Bøyum (Ivar's sister) married Knut Hansson Tufte. The emigrated aproxematly the same time ar Ivar.

Farm 2

As far as we know no one from this farm emigrated.

Farm 3

Rasmus Arnfinnson Bøyum (son of Arnfinn Olson and Brita Olsdtr. Bøyum) emigrated together with his sister Gjertrud Arnfinndtr Bøyum. Gjertud married Asbjørn Johanneson some years later. Ola Arnfinnson Bøyum (b. 1808) and his wife Solveig Larsdtr. Bøyum sold farm 3 to Sjur Johannsson Bøyum in 1848 and emigrated.

Farm 4

Ivar dy. Sjursson Bøyum (son of Sjur Johannesson Bøyum [b. 1814] and Unni Ivarsdtr Supphellen) emigrated to America. Ivar dy... We belive that it was Ivar that helped Knut, Ole and their family they emigrated in 1907. Ivar dy. was their uncle. Johannes Sjurson Bøyum and his wife Åsa Torsdtr Sværen sold the farm to Lars Kjellson Hamrum Bøyum and Gjertrud Sjursdtr Bøyum in 1875 an emigrated.

Farm 5

This farm was splitted from farm 4 in 1842. The only persons we know emigrated from this farm where the brothers Åmund, Sjur and Per Ivarsson Bøyum

Farm 6

Lars and Hans Olson Bøyum (sons of Ole Larsson Bøyum and Mari Hansdtr Tufte) are the only persons we know emigrated from this farm.

Farm 7

As far as we know no one from this farm emigrated.

Other farms

Lars Kjellson Hamrum Bøyum was born on the Hamrum farm. From this farm Ivar Olason Hamrum son of Ola Kjellson Hamrum and Gjøron Ivarsdtr Supphellen. Ola was Lars Kjellson Hamrum Bøyum elder brother.

The farms in front of the Bøyum farm area is called Tufte or Tuftane through all times. This area is divided into 3 farms, and some smallholder also lived here. We can also find Bøyum's from these farms. From these farms we know that a Kari Hansdtr from Tufte farm number two went to America. From Tufte farm number three Synneva Hansdtr emigrated. A very well-known Bøyum in Minnesota pastor Arne Ellendson Bøyum (b. 1833). He was the son of smallholder Ellend Eirikson Bøyum (b. 1797). He was married Anna Sjovatsdtr, and the emigrated with their 7 children in 1856. Pastor Arne Ellemdson Bøyum was a priest in Arendal, Fillmore county from 1876 to 1896. He died in 1913. A lot of the smallholder or their children emigrated and most of them used the surname Bøyum/Boyum.

FJÆRLAND (where the Bøyum farms are)

Fjærland is the district surrounding Fjærlandsfjord, a branch of Sognefjord. Fjærland has 300 inhabitants and is part of Sogndal municipality. The centre in Fjærland is Mundal, about 3 km from the main road, down the fjord. Most people in Fjærland are engaged in farming and tourism.

Until 1985 the only way to get to Fjærland was to travel by boat on the Fjærland Fjord. In 1986 the road north to Skei was built. It was opened by former U.S. VicePresident Walter F. Mondale; whose family and name originates from Mundal in Fjærland. In 1994 the road was continued south to Sogndal making Fjærland easy to reach from both north and south. The area has been settled since the Viking Age, but there are finds dating back to the late Stone Age. The size of the population has varied over the years. Large scale emigration to America took place in the late 19th century. Mundal includes school and church, as well as shops, hotels and other services. The church is from 1861, rebuilt in 1931. It is open to the public. In Mundal you also find The Norwegian Book Town with several picturesque second-hand book shops. The Book Town opened in 1996, being the eighth booktown in the world and the first in Scandinavia.

Nature and landscape

The landscape in Fjærland has been shaped by glaciers through successive ice ages during the last 2,5 to 3 million years. Towering mountains and U-shaped valleys surround large delta areas which results from the accumulation of sediment supplied by the glacier rivers. The glaciers Bøyabreen and Supphellebreen come down to the valley floor in Fjærland. These are branches of Jostedalsbreen - the largest glacier on the European continent (487 km²). The ice in the ice falls of the glaciers is gliding down the mountain side with a speed of 2 metres per day - among the fastest in Norway. Supphellebreen, at an elevation of 60 m, is the lowest lying glacier in Southern Norway. Parts of Fjærland lie within Jostedalsbreen National Park. The National Park covers 1230 km² and is characterized by great variation within short distances, from fjords and lowland, to mountains and glaciers. Jostedalsbreen has been in use as a transport route for several hundred years. One of the most popular routes at the southern part of Jostedalsbreen is between Lunde and Fjærland. The Bøyaøyri estuary at the head of the fjord is a protected nature reserve, due to its part in bird migration during the spring and autumn. 100 species have been observed and approximately 50 of them nest in the area. The farms are large and easy to run compared to most farms of Western Norway. Soil quality and climate are particularly good for milk and meat production. All the valleys in Fjærland have mountain pastures, so called 'støl' or 'sæter'. These are reached by path or cart road. Few of them are in use today.

Communication

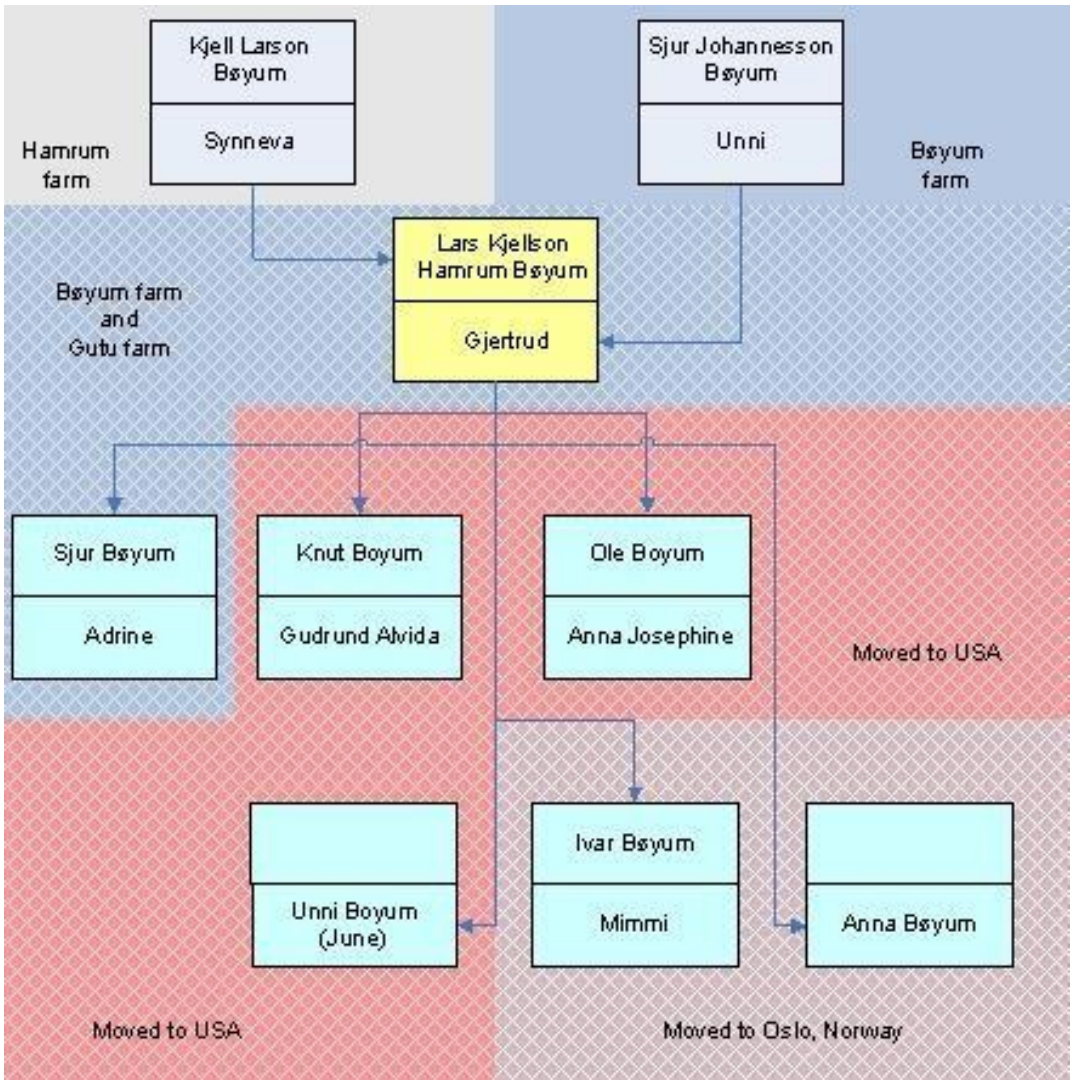
Today daily buses connect Fjærland with, among others, Oslo, Bergen, Flåm, Sogndal, Stryn and Førde. In the summer a car ferry Fjærland - Hella - Balestrand also connects with ferry/boat to Vangsnes/Vik and express boat to/from Bergen and Flåm. In Fjærland a bus connects with the ferry and takes you to the Glacier Museum. From the museum the bus continues to the glaciers, before it brings you back to the ferry quay.

Note : The text to the chapter about Fjærland are found on the internet on the pages of the glacier museum in Fjærland, Norway

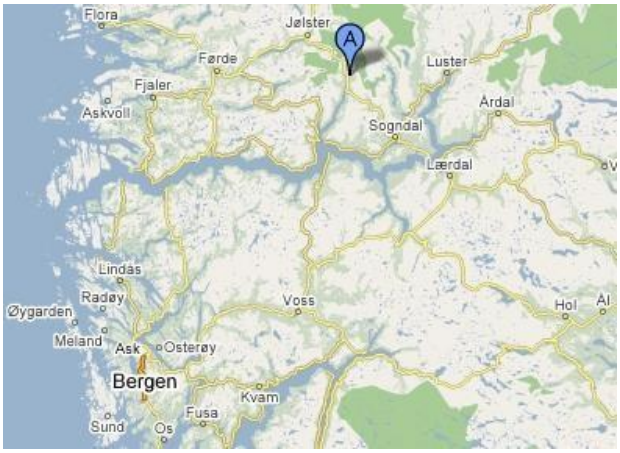
THE “MODERN” BØYUM FAMILY (after 1900)

Lars Kjellson Hamrum Bøyum

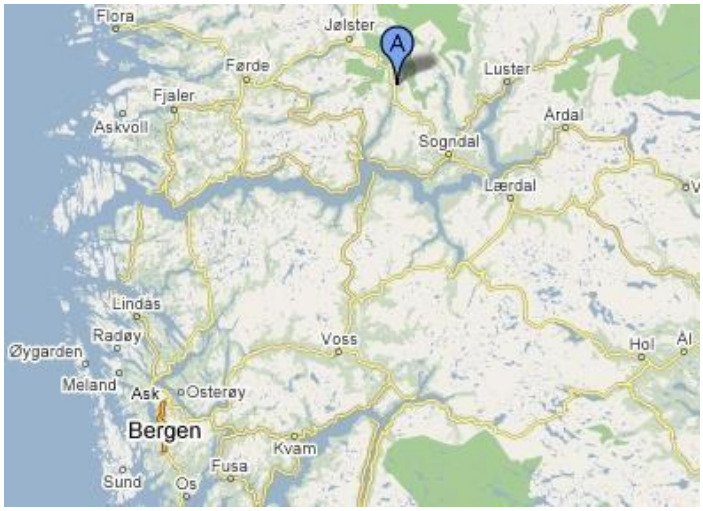
Lars Kjellson Hamrum Bøyum was born on the Hamrum farm. His parents were Kjell Larson Bøyum and Synneva Olasdtr. Hamrum. He was married to Gjertrud Sjursdtr. Bøyum. Gjertrud was daughter of Sjur Johannesson Bøyum and Unni Ivarsdtr. Supphellen and born on the Bøyum farm. The figure shows the 3 generations that came from the Boyum and Hamrum farms.



Lars and Gjertrud bought the Bøyum farm from her brother Johannes Sjurson Boyum when he immigrated to America. The maps below will show where the Bøyum farms are.



The Bøyum farm is located in Sogn in Norway. In the end of one of the arms of the Sognefjord in the western parts of Norway you will find a place called Fjærland (marked with a “blue” A on the maps above). Lars and Gjertrud had the farm for a while but decided to move to a place called Førde. You can find Førde on the map below just west of Fjærland.



But Lars and Gjertrud moved again. They bought a farm Gutu in Skoger in Vestfold. Skoger is just south of the town Drammen and not far from Oslo (the capital of Norway). Today the Skoger area is splitted into two. The part where the Gutu farm reside, belongs to Sande in Vestfold, but the rest of Skoger belongs to Drammen in Buskerud. The map on the next page will give an idea where the farm is located.

In 1900 it was a population census in Norway. The farm was then called Guthu and they were growing grain and potatoes. They had cows, pigs and chickens. They had a garden with fruit trees and some vegetables. It was 9 people living on the farm at the time. It was Lars and Gjertrud, Knut (their son), Ole (their son), Unni (their daughter), Ivar (their son), Anna (their daughter), Jens Jensson (their farm worker who took care of the animals) and Anna Pedersdtr (their femal worker who worked in the house). The eldest son Sjur lived at a farm named Avløs in Bærum where he worked as a farm worker.

In 1906 Knut had married Gudrun and the gave birth to a daughter named Gjertrud in January 1906. On the April 25 th 1907 Knut, Gudrun and their daughter Gjertrud together with Knut's brother Ole left Oslo, Norway with the ship "Oslo" with destination Minnesota USA. Their sister Unni (in US called June) followed on June 18th a year later. Sjur later returned home an inherited the farm. Ivar and Anna moved to Oslo. Knut, his family and Ole and later Unni went to Minnesota and lived first with their uncle Ivar (their mother Gjertrud's brother) that helped them the first period after the emigrated. Descendants after Sjur and his family are still in the Sande area, Vestfold and Drammen area in Norway. Descendants after Knut and his family could be found in Washington State near Seattle, in Texas and several other places in USA. Ole married Anna Josephine Thoreson (b. 1897) in Erskine, Minnesota. She was the daughter of Brede Martin Thoresen and Mathilde Marie Antonsdtr who emigrated to the USA in 1895. Their descendants still live in Minnesota. Unni (called June in USA) was married but did not get any children. Ivar married Mimmi Thorkildsen. Their descendants still live in Oslo and in Hedemark in Norway. Anna never married and had no desendants.

Sjur Bøyum

Sjur was born in Fjærland as the eldest son he inherited the farm Gutu. He married Andrine Olavsdtr Kjellås. Sjur and Andrine had 3 children, Gjertrud, Astrid and Synøve. Sjur later married Gina Marie Hole, and the had 6 children together. They were named Solveig, Einar, Gudrun, Kirsten, Knut and Else Marie. Einar inherited the farm Gutu after his father and lived on the farm all his years. The Gutu farm is still owned by members of the Bøyum family.

Knut Boyum

Knut are born in Fjærland, Norway in 1883. He married Gudrund Alvilde Jørgensen (born 14th August 1887) 28th May 1904. The picture below are a copy of their marriage licens (a copy written in 1955).

Ole Lars Bøyum

Ole was born when the family lived in Førde (born 1885). Ole left Norway together with his brother Knut and his family on april 25th 1907. The ship "Oslo" brought them to the American continent and the destination was their uncles farm in Minnesota. Ole was unmarried when he left Norway, but when he came to Minnesota, he married Anna Josephine Thoreson. Anna Josepine, born Dec. 19th, 1897, was daugther of Brede Martin Thoresen and Mathilde Marie Antonsdatter who emigrated from Norway in 1895 with 4 children. They had the children Alma (born Sept. 24th, 1920), Grace Othelia (born Dec. 20th 1922), Gloyd Willard (born July 13th 1924), Lucille June (born Jan. 15th 1926) and Norman Orlo (born Jan. 18th 1928). Annie died at the age 48 in Oct. 17th, 1946. Ole lived until the age of 82 and died Feb. 17th, 1971. The picture shows Ole Lars Boyum and his wife Anna Josephine. Ole was back in Norway and visited his brother Sjur on the Guthu farm once after he emigrated to USA.

Unni (June) Boyum

Unni Boyum or June as she was called emigrated to USA the year after her brother Knut and Ole. Until I visited Minnesota in April 2007, we believed she stayed unmarried all her life. Here I heard that she was married to a man named Marcus Nesset, but did not get any children. She lived in Minnesota until her death. June was a person that helped both her family and other people during the depression. June kept contact with her sister Anna until Anna died.

Ivar Bøyum

Ivar Bøyum married Mimmi Thorkildsen. Ivar and Mimmi had 2 children Gerd Harriet and Marit Synøve. Ivar and Mimmi moved and lived in the Vika area. When they started to build the new town hall all people in this area was moved to another area, Thorshov. Both Ivar and Mimmi lived here the rest of their life. Ivar was educated as a car mechanic and worked in a company called Fram Motors. When he was working in Fram Motors he and some of his colleagues started a union for car mechanics that today are a part of the main labour union in Norway. One history I have been told from that time is that Ivar was working under one of the kings Haakon's cars lying on a roller. Suddenly trills another roller with the king on up on his side to watch. The King was very interested in technique and automobiles. Later he started his own company called "Etterstadgatens Bilverksted".

He was arrested by the German occupasjon forces July 7, 1943 and was sent to Grini prison camp. He was in Grini until 9th December 1943 when he was sent to Saxenhausen concentration camp near Berlin. Having arrived Saxenhausen 12th December 1943 he was put in slave labor as Auto Restoration Service on SS workshop in the camp. Most who came to the concentration camps were not meant to survive, but in spite of the horrors and almost no or bad food, he survived until the war ended. He returned with the white buses from the Red Cross after the war and was strongly reduced even after they had "fattened" all the prisoners before they were shipped back home. They had to do this so they would survive the transport to Norway. He was so reduced after this that he never recovered. He was sick until he died of cancer in 1952. His wife Mimmi died in 1983. They are both buried at "Nordre Garvlund" cemetery. The picture below shows "Etterstadgatens Bilverksted" that Ivar started in the 1930'th.

Anna Bøyum

Anna never married and stayed single all her life. She lived near Carl Berners Plass in Oslo. Anna had much contact with her brother Ivar and her sister in Minnesota Unni (June). She owned and worked a Café in near the railway station, downtown Oslo. Anna was a little bit confused on her elderly days, and the contact she had with the family I Minnesota was lost.

Official documents from the Norwegian Digital Archive

Dokuments based on the Norwegian 1900 census showing who lived on the farm “Guthu” in Sande at that time. The farm was owned by Lars Bøyum and his family after they left Fjærland and later Førde. The eldest brother Sjur was not living at the farm at this time. He was on another farm learning farming.

The Family tree overview.

The family tree is the result of several years of work and litte bit of luck. The tree goes back to about year 300-400, because we did link back to the old royal family (represented by Harald Hårfagre) and then a lot given. We have also been fortunate that we found some of the descendants of the family members who immigrated to the United States. This has helped us lot to document much of the past and current generations family members. Strangely enough, the greatest difficulty was to find the family in Norway, especially the family of Sjur Bøyum who was the one who inherited the farm Guthu after his father. I was in touch with some of his then re-living children, but unfortunately, they had not much contact and information on that part of the family. But I have not given up and hopefully I find out more gradually and can update the family tree.

In this version of the book is the family tree a bit different than the previous version. The reason for this is that the pages in the book must be generated from a special format that is generated by the tool you use to register family members. The previous version of the book used a tool that required a lot of work to get a finished result, and that is not compatible with the current operating system on the PC. I therefore had to roll your sleeves up and develop a new tool that both make web pages and generating family three pages in the book. I chose the connection to create a separate tree for every family with a link to the tree which the parents were children and the children to the tree that they are parents. I have chosen to make a threeindex that verbally describes the families and a graphic picture of the same families. In addition, it made a person index where you get an overview of in which three different people are included. It's also added a listing of the descendance after King Harald Hårfagre and the relationship to him. People that's not related to him directly in the tree will not be present in this tree.
Since I am now in a simple way can change the book just by regenerating the family section in the book it will be easier to create new versions of the book in the future. The plan is to update with new versions of the book as I get enough updates on the family to defend the work it entails. Good luck with this version of the book, I hope it can be useful.

DECENT RELATIONS

King Harald Hårfagre (born about 850 and dead about 933) was the one who historically gained the honor of gathering Norway into one kingdom. Harald was king over Sogn from about 860 and later king over larger parts of modern Norway from approx. year 872 to his death. King Harald is in our family tree through his daughter Åløv Årbot “vårgjeva” Haraldsdtr. When we were to set up a genus to see relationships through generations, it was natural to base it on King Harald. Persons related to King Harald are listed alphabetically in the table below with textual relations and with the number of generations after the King.
